

GALERIE MARCILHAC

XXth CENTURY DECORATIVE ARTS
PARIS

JEAN DUNAND (1877-1942)

1877 (1877) - 1942.

Swiss designer and artist, Dunand was a pioneer of modernist design. He worked in various media, including metal, wood, and glass. His work is characterized by its geometric forms and innovative use of materials. He was a member of the Les Apollons group and the Société des Artistes Décorateurs. His designs were highly influential in the development of modernist decorative arts.

Dunand's work was highly influential in the development of modernist decorative arts. He was a member of the Les Apollons group and the Société des Artistes Décorateurs. His designs were highly influential in the development of modernist decorative arts. He was a member of the Les Apollons group and the Société des Artistes Décorateurs. His designs were highly influential in the development of modernist decorative arts.

His work was highly influential in the development of modernist decorative arts. He was a member of the Les Apollons group and the Société des Artistes Décorateurs. His designs were highly influential in the development of modernist decorative arts.

GALERIE MARCILHAC

8, rue Bonaparte, 75006, Paris, France // Tel : 00 33 (0)1 43 26 47 36 // Fax : 00 33 (0)1 43 54 96 87
Email : info@marcilhacgalerie.com // Internet : www.marcilhacgalerie.com // SIRET : 510 899 545 000 48