

GALERIE MARCILHAC

XXth CENTURY DECORATIVE ARTS
PARIS

SÜE & MARE (Louis SÜE (1875-1968) & André MARE (1885-1932))

Pair of "Fleurs" wall lights, 1922

Gilded iron sconces taking form of a shell that is covered by a drapery in an arc. The base of the shell forms a rolled leather pattern that supports a molded alabaster basin. From this bowl emanate pearls and drops of crystal in a pattern of gushing waters reflected in a mirror at the back.

H 70 - L 80 cm (H 27.6 - W 31.5 in)

PROVENANCE

Jean Patou, Paris - Galerie Marcilhac, Paris - Collection Karl Lagerfeld.

HISTORIQUE

This pair of sconces was designed for the mansion of the designer Jean Patou and placed in the hallway.

BIBLIOGRAPHIE

Camard (Florence), "Süe et Mare et la Compagnie des Arts Français", Paris, 1993, p. 115 and on p. 244.

GALERIE MARCILHAC

8, rue Bonaparte, 75006, Paris, France // Tel : 00 33 (0)1 43 26 47 36 // Fax : 00 33 (0)1 43 54 96 87
Email : info@marcilhacgalerie.com // Internet : www.marcilhacgalerie.com // SIRET : 510 899 545 000 48